

STACEY WRIGHT

Creative Writer

I am an individual who is versed in the art of bringing imagination, and intuition to life in new and unexpected ways. Never shying from a challenge, always rising to the occasion, and exceeding expectations to engender long-term relationships. My primary work experience is in retail wherein I gained experience and training in leadership; however, I am now eager to utilize my existing skills, coupled with my recent education and unique perspectives to charter a new path. My passion for integrity, and my drive to be successful make me an ideal candidate to assist in driving, creating, or expanding upon an existing brand, product line, or publication.
